

Excellence in Financial Markets Education

Diploma of Financial Services (Financial Markets) (FNS51004)

Optionetics in association with Hubb Financial Institute is offering Optionetics students the opportunity to obtain the nationally recognised qualification Diploma of Financial Services (Financial Markets). Enrolment in the diploma is free to Optionetics students and is offered as part of our ongoing commitment to quality financial markets education.

Overview

The Diploma of Financial Services (Financial Markets) qualification provides a foundation for students who are either new to the finance and investment industry or are seeking to broaden their understanding of the industry. It is designed to equip you with underpinning knowledge about the financial markets and enable you to apply the learning's to a range of different work environments.

Who should enrol?

This entry level program is ideal for people globally who are:

- Looking to enter the finance and investment industry and who are seeking a recognised industry qualification;
- Currently working in non-advice areas of the finance and investment industry and wish to broaden their industry knowledge; and
- Private investors seeking assessment of their understanding in financial markets.

Qualification

Upon successful completion of the course you will be awarded the:

Diploma of Financial Services (Financial Markets) (FNS51004)

Where the course is partially completed a Statement of Attainment covering the achieved units of competency will be issued.

Delivery and Duration

Delivery is self-paced distance education using the Optionetics Home Study Course as your learning material. The duration of the course is 12 months.

Assessment

Students must meet the competency standards of the Australian Quality Training Framework and be judged competent on all relevant criteria.

To successfully complete this course you are required to:

- Submit an assignment and sit an exam for each subject
- Complete a skills assessment and major project
- Achieve a pass mark in all assessments

Further details on assessments can be found on our website: www.hubb institute.com

Nationally recognised qualification in accordance with the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF)

Competencies

The Diploma of Financial Services (Financial Markets) (FNS51004) comprises twelve (12) units of competency as follows:

Competency code	Unit of competency
FNSICGEN301A	Communicate in the workplace
FNSICGEN302A	Use technology in the workplace
FNSICGEN304A	Apply health and safety practices in the workplace
FNSICIND401A	Apply principles of professional practice to work in the financial services industry
FNSFMKT501A	Analyse financial markets and information
FNSFMKT502A	Analyse financial markets products for clients
FNSFMKT602A	Trade financial products
FNSRISK602A	Determine and manage risk exposure strategies
FNSCOMP501A	Comply with financial services legislation, industry and professional codes of practice
FNSRISK502A	Assess risks
FNSRISK501A	Undertake risk identification
FNSFLIT503A	Promote basic financial literacy skills

Support

All students have access to email support and a comprehensive online student area via our website which includes a discussion forum 24hrs/7days. Phone support is also available to all students 8:30am to 5:30pm Monday to Friday (AEST).

Additional support and special consideration may be sought where students have English language difficulties, numeracy issues or disadvantages due to a medical condition. See the Student Handbook for further details.

Entry requirements

Enrolment is open to all fully paid Optionetics students that are 18 years of age and over. Students will also require a copy of the Optionetics 2007 Home Study Course and have computer and internet access.

Vocational Outcome

The Diploma of Financial Services (Financial Markets) provides a firm grounding in global financial market concepts. Students who successfully complete the Diploma will have vocational opportunities in broking and market analyst type roles with companies in their locality that trade or deal in domestic and/or international securities.

Enrolment

Enrolment in the Diploma of Financial Services (Financial Markets) is offered free of charge to Optionetics students. Enrolment intake is open all year round allowing you to decide when to commence.

Enrol Today

Phone 1300 727 252 International +61 2 8213 6066

Email diploma@optionetics.com.au

Web www.optionetics.com.au/diploma

